

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.
dated at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 15, 1884.

Humpy-Dumpy will draw an immense house on March 20th.

E. H. Chamberlin, who for several years kept a fish and fruit stand in this city, committed suicide at the Waverly Hotel, New Orleans, on Monday, by taking chloroform and morphine. He left letters requesting his body be sent to Louisville for interment in Cave Hill Cemetery, and gave as a reason for taking his life that it had been a mistake.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Jennie R. Brown, wife of Mr. A. W. Brown, formerly of this city, which occurred at the residence of her husband in Louisville on Sunday, after a week's illness. The deceased was a daughter of the late Wm. W. Stephens, of this country. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in this city.

The teachers of the Public School made an application to the trustees a few days since for an increase of salary, which they failed to grant, and one of the scholars, a little girl, hearing of it, went to her teacher one morning the first of the week and said, "Miss —, I know you don't get much for teaching us, so here is a nickel for you; I want you to take it, it will help to increase your salary."

Master John W. R. Williams, son of Dr. U. V. Williams, has invented a new incubator. He had a Plymouth Rock hen setting that got tired of her job one day last week and went off and left her nest. In order to save the egg he placed a lighted lamp in the bottom of a barrel, put the egg in a basket, ran a stick long enough to reach across the top of the barrel through the handle of the basket, suspended it over the lamp, and then covered the head of the barrel with a blanket. The heat from the lamp did the business, and the egg went right along hatching just as though the hen had never retired from business, and Master Johnny now has a fine brood of motherless chickens to look after.

The Court of Appeals on Thursday reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of Bug Braneon against Labrot & Graham and Gus Shaefer. It will be remembered that in the summer of 1881 a child of Braneon was playing around a pile of timber on the Harvie lot, on Wilkinson street, which Shaefer was getting out to be used in the construction of a warehouse for Messrs. Labrot & Graham, when the pile of timbers tumbled down on the little fellow and crushed him to death. Braneon brought suit against Messrs. Labrot & Graham and Shaefer for damages and when the case came to trial in the Circuit Court the petition was dismissed, and from that judgment Braneon appealed, and now the case goes back to the Circuit Court again. Col. John L. Scott is attorney for Braneon.

Primary Election.

Primary elections and political conventions are above the water. Bribery and corruption of the most excessive character may be resorted to with impunity and there is no remedy whatever. An honest man stands no chance in either, and the corrupt are generally successful.

Any person under lawful age, any person rendered infamous by crime, may vote with impunity and there is no redress. A man may vote a dozen times and the grand jury can not indict him; he may sell his vote boldly and openly and no man can accuse him of violating the laws; he may buy as many votes as he pleases and there is no law to punish him for it. In such races, the men who treat the most and spend the money are always the winners.

The party in the minority is virtually disfranchised. They are excluded from these primary elections and conventions and are not allowed even to make choice of those candidates who are opposed to them politically because unfortunately they happen to be on the weak side.

No wonder so many corrupt and unprincipled men are getting into power all over the country. No wonder there is a rumble of discontent among the masses on account of the men who are selected to rule them. The regular elections recognized by the law and the constitutions are humbugs. The primary election and conventions have superseded them.

Every Representative from Louisville is in favor of the Cigarito appropriation.

WANTED TO BORROW.—Three thousand dollars, for one or two years; will pay ten per cent. interest and give first mortgage on city real estate. Apply at this office.

Elder George Darsie left Monday morning for Mayville to assist in a protracted meeting and will be absent two weeks. His pulpit will be occupied tomorrow morning by Elder Robt. Moffett.

Mr. Robert B. Wilson's article, in answer to the charges against James G. Arnold and Thomas Crittenton, which appeared in last Sunday's issue of the Courier-Journal, was written and mailed to the Courier-Journal the 23d inst., but by some oversight it did not appear for several days.

Mrs. Wm. M. Crutcher ("Mormon Bill"), of the Pea Ridge neighborhood, this county, is the father of twenty children—the youngest was born last week. He has been married twice, eleven children being the fruits of the first marriage and nine of the last, and there were only one pair twins in the lot. He is only 67 years of age, in robust health, and there is no telling how much larger his family will yet be.

The Bridgeport Entertainment.

In order to raise funds for the purpose of erecting a school building at Bridgeport, some of the enterprising citizens of that village have gotten up a series of entertainments which reflect great credit upon all connected with them. Thursday evening a large audience assembled at the Franklin Church to witness one of them, given under the management of Mr. C. H. Parrent, and all agreed that the evening was exceedingly well spent. The programme consisted of instrumental music, an operetta and a charade. Misses Sallie Russell, Alma Scofield, Anna Belle Crockett, Hallie Russell, Mrs. Fannie Parrent, and Messrs. W. H. and Walton Parrent sustained the characters in the operetta and charade, while Miss Kate Sudiluth and Mr. R. C. Mayhall supplied the music and all acquitted themselves well, especially Miss Hallie Russell and Mrs. Fannie Parrent. The latter filling the character of Cillie, the colored servant, in a manner that would have done credit to a professional.

A second entertainment was given at the same place last evening by the same company of gentlemen and ladies, which drew another large audience, and gave equal satisfaction. It is to be hoped that the laudable efforts of these ladies and gentlemen may be richly rewarded, as every citizen of that community should lead them a helping hand.

Personal.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Point Pleasant.

Rain, snow and sleet, consequently news is scarce.

Mr. Ed. Silvers visited Mr. Butler Glare Tuesday night.

Mr. John B. Harrod, of Harp, paid the Point a flying visit Tuesday.

Meers, Tracy and Bryant have moved to Mr. L. L. Conway's farm, near Antioch.

Miss Larour Glare visited the Point Sunday, the guest of Mrs. R. J. Shannon.

Mr. Mat Chisholm has removed to the farm of County Attorney J. A. Vilett, at Flax Fork.

Misses Flora Wallace and Sally Hopper, of Antioch neighborhood, visited Mrs. R. J. Shannon Sunday.

Mr. James Glare sold to Mr. John Wiley, of Pleasant Ridge, a fine three-year-old mare, last week, for one hundred dollars.

Mr. John Moore, of the Ridge, Mr. Loma Wallace, of Antioch, Mr. John Hopper, of Serafield, Shelby county, were the guests of Hawk Eye Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Snow visited the Point Monday. He says that the widow he has found has seven boys and two girls and that is too much to start on for him.

Mr. Nickolas Almon, Shelbyville neighbor, formerly of Bald Knob, visited the Point last Friday night, the guest of Hawk Eye. He says he is very much pleased with his reception.

I would like to see the sight. We are told that Col. Dave Moore has had his picture enlarged. Whether he can get it in his house or does he keep it hanging out doors for the public to look at.

Mr. J. E. Arnold, of Midway, paid the point a flying visit Monday. He says he is in search of his third wife, and wants a young girl about 10 years old, nice, genteel, and industrious. He says he is in a fix to take good care of a lady.

Col. Dave Moore attended the sale of Mr. N. J. Moore, March 4, and the auctioneer was in the house selling some furniture. The house was crowded and bidding lively when the Colonel pushed his way through the crowd to see what was going on when lo, there was a crash and the door of the room gave way under the weight of Col. Dave. He was pulled out and the door he crashed ran out, but was soon found that no damage was done only the breaking of three or four shelves.

Another ghost has been heard of in the vicinity of Mrs. Arm-hill's graveyard. A couple of gentlemen went to a neighbor's to sit until bed time, and on their return home had to pass the graveyard. When opposite the yard the elder of the two said he heard something, and believed he would run, and started, but could not keep up with the younger one, and ran to fast. The older gentleman was rather frightened, the younger man jumped little fast at a jump, and the last he saw of him was going over a plank fence without touching it. The gentleman says he was bound to laugh to see how fast he ran. The young man will not brag about his bravery any more.

HAWK EYE.

Pleasant View.

The continued bad weather has prevented the farmers from doing any plowing at all this spring.

Mr. Wm. Dearing has sold his farm of 126 acres near this place, to Mr. Ed. Long for $13,500.

A show was to have exhibited at this place Saturday night, but for some reason the showman failed to put in an appearance.

Mr. George Thermond has rented the house of Mr. J. W. Watkins, and will carry on business in Franklin instead of Henry county.

Mr. Israel Rodgers is buying up a large lot of cattle and paying good prices for them, and is also making arrangements for a large crop of tobacco the coming season.

BLACK HAWK.

Pleasant Ridge.

Come, boys, an industrious man is what I like to see. Don't let the spring fever get hold of you.

Boys keep your boats blacked, for we will have a wedding soon. Johnny—is talking to Miss—and he says there is no fooling with him.

Look out, boys, we will have some cold weather. Mr. William Harrod (The String) was going up this road with a bed quilt wrapped around him.

Boys, look out, if you want to trade, I saw two horses at church last Sunday trailing knives while the preacher was praying, and they closed their eyes.

S. D. Smith had spent grubbing last week, and one of our industrious men piled trash as long as he could stand up and then got down on his knees and piled.

A young man in this community wears a ring with a tin string to it. Some of the boys say they do not know why he wears it unless he is the cook.

Mr. Van D. Harrod visited Mr. Henry Rogers. He and Tom were walking about the farm and ran up on a black polecat and shot six shots at it, and then it got away, but the boys say the rest of his days will not be long.

Go and see the Rose Clothes Horse at Whitesides & McEwan's. It is the best thing of the kind ever brought to this city.

Bagdad.

The turnpike fever is abating.

We are being smitten upon once more by beautiful weather.

Messrs. J. D. and V. Whitman were the guests of Miss Jessie last Sunday.

Miss Ellen Lee has been visiting relatives the past two weeks, near the Crossroads.

The singing class met at the residence of Mr. L. E. Len Monday night and was conducted by Prof. T. J. Hill and Charley Roberts.

Switzer.

Born.—On the 9th, to G. W. Hopkins and wife, a son.

John M. Newman left for Bloomington, Illinois, last Monday.

Mr. C. M. Cook, of Oxford, is painting Mr. Dudley Baker's new residence.

A. H. Holland, who has been quite sick for some time is able to be out again.

Miss Suzy Levine has been quite ill for sometime and at this writing is but little if any better.

McCoy and Holder have sold their crop of tobacco to Wingate and Gloucester for nine pounds per hundred.

Mr. Bert Arnold, of Peeks Mill neighborhood, has bought a farm near our village and is now moving to his new home.

The funeral of James Miller, who died of pneumonia March 31, at his home on Flat Creek, will be preached at North Fork to noon, at eleven o'clock.

The drawing for the handsome handmade buggy ride made by Mrs. Lizzie McGowen will take place at her residence Saturday, March 23d, at three o'clock. P. M. All who have taken chances are invited to be in attendance.

You can rest assured that your Switzer correspondent will never go back on a friend, and in the case of Punch and Judy he is sure not to. His parents taught him a lesson in childhood to always respect old age, and that lesson has never been neglected or forgotten.

The tide of emigration will soon have ceased to roll on, the farmers will no longer congregate at our village stores and complain of bad weather and hard times.

A great many large crops of tobacco have been cultivated around the stores of our merchants this past winter, but now as the weather turns in hand they will soon begin to turn the soil, scatter the seed, and make general arrangements for a large crop of the product that Kentucky soil so abundantly grows.

ONCE A WEEK.

Between the Bridges.

Not much news in this section this week.

Tom Dougherty and G. B. Roach have the measles.

Mr. Frank Hackley has been quite sick for several days.

Mr. Mack Thurman, of Danville, was in this neighborhood Wednesday.

Mr. John S. Roach, who recently moved from this place to Anderson county, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity this spring.

Miss Florence Collins, of White Hall, and Miss Ruth Mastin, of Woodford county, are visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood this week.

Dr. Johnson has a felon on one of his fingers that prevents him from attending the socials but it does not keep him from chattering the photographer's girl.

Ton and Taffy are some pominps on poster but it says anything more about Punch and Judy's age he will be hurt worse than he was when that log fell on him.

Miss Ella Collins, who has been on a visit to Taylor county for some time, returned home last Saturday evening, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Myrtle Smith.

The Tinsley boys are about winding up their own hands for this season, as it is about time to begin to make preparations for farming, and they contemplate raising a large crop this year.

Those old contumacious we spoke of last week have disappeared, and in their stead the young ladies are wearing pleasant smiles for the welcome gents whose absence caused so much sadness.

Messrs. Tom and Sam Collins returned home from Taylor county Tuesday with forty odd head of cattle, and notwithstanding their long wearisome journey they had time to stop and greet their Alton friends before they made their appearance between the bridges.

Esquire S. M. Tinsley was in Frankfort two days last week assisting in a settlement between Messrs. Sacra and Mahoney, and after the settlement satisfactorily closed Mr. Sacra retained the services of Mr. Mahoney and purchased the entire stock of buggies, horses, &c., belonging thereto and will continue to run the business.

Clint McAnn is able to be out on crutches again and will be in attendance at the next meeting of the County Court. Please give him room on jockey street.

Mr. Charley Quire was visiting his friends on Sand Hill last Sunday. He aimed to climb the fence and look for his girl, but fell off and was badly wounded in one foot and leg.

Strayed or stolen—a young man of this place started on last Saturday to see his girl, and when last heard of he was near

PUNCH AND JUDY.

Cedar Run.

Thill. Cardwell has got the chills.

Mr. Alfred Conley has a very sick child. Miss Sallie Johnson is visiting the family of Judge Jeft.

Mr. James Distler lost a fine cow and calf last week.

Allen Hyatt has moved from the Stanley farm to near Bridgeport.

Henry Done, of Pendleton county, is visiting the family of W. A. Moore.

Miss Lizzie Thompson is spending the winter with relatives in Shelby county.

Miss Annie Cardwell has gone to Owen on a visit of a few weeks to friends and relatives.

Moors, Henry and Price Moore spent several days on Stony Creek the first of the week.

Will Moore and sons attended the sale of his Brother, Than Moore, on Stony Creek, last Tuesday.

Mr. Chap Thomas bought a fine mule. He says he can't wait for the ground to dry to start his plow.

T. L. Moore wants a post-office established at the blacksmith shop on Cedar Run for his convenience.

Mrs. Alice Jones is trying to make up a three months school at the Cedar Run School House. We hope she will be successful.

Miss Annie Moore has returned home from a week's visit to her Uncle John Smith, of Bloomington, the land where the famous Nipper dwells.

Still Smiley, the contractor, has commenced the work of moving the rock that came down in the slide a few weeks since in front of J. T. Gray's residence.

Mr. Andrew Roberts and Miss Mary Dunlap were joined in the holy bands of wedlock at the residence of Mr. S. E. Dunlap at 4 p.m. on the 6 inst. May all the usual happiness attend the newly wedded pair, and may all future blessings be added.

NIP AND TUCK.

Stamping Ground.

Miss Lila Poindexter has opened her school again.

Mr. C. H. Duvall is studying medicine under Dr. R. S. Sparks.

Mr. J. C. Applegate has been quite ill with pneumonia, but is able to be out again.

Miss Billy Newman has been quite ill with pneumonia, but is improving rapidly now.

Mr. George Wigginton has delivered about all of his tobacco crop—about 10,400 pounds.

Mrs. Duvall and son Sid, who have been quite sick for some time, are both able to be out again.

Mr. Wm. Mothershead is a candidate for marriage and would like to secure a deputy to join in with him.

There will be a large quantity of tobacco put in this year, in this section, if one may judge by the tremendous winter crop that is now being raised.

Our town is improving rapidly. We now have three schools—one called the College, one the district school, and the other the Buffalo school.

Mr. James Kelly is making great preparations to have a large crop of tobacco put in shares. He will put in about 30 acres, and it will not be mistaken he will need a great many hands to tend it, as the worms will all go to his patch to stay.

Flag Fork.

James R. Harrod closed his school at Bald Knob last Thursday.

W. C. Owens is in the lead for Congress in this section of the country.

Born.—To W. E. Thompson and wife, March 23d, a boy—Les. Collins.

Miss Luther Harrel, of Butler Town, is visiting the family of V. M. Poole.

Miss Ella Kelly, of Bailey's Mill, is visiting her parents this week at Cropper's.

Mr. Frank Polsgrove has been very sick for the past few weeks but is recovering.

Miss Lettie Harrel is visiting her Cousin, Miss Jessie Pool, of Bailey's Mill, this week.

Miss Kate Kelley, of Shelby county, is visiting the family of Judge C. V. Bailey.

Messrs. Bailey, Downey and Wadkins will have their saw and grist-mill in operation next week.

E. B. Bailey sold a tract of land containing 17 acres to Wesley Flood for $35 dollars per acre.

E. B. Long sold at the 9th street tobacco Ware-house, Louisville, last Monday, 4 bushels of tobacco at $21, $17, $14, $14.75.

Clint McAnn is able to be out on crutches again and will be in attendance at the next meeting of the County Court. Please give him room on jockey street.

Mr. Charley Quire was visiting his friends on Sand Hill last Sunday. He aimed to climb the fence and look for his girl, but fell off and was badly wounded in one foot and leg.

Strayed or stolen—a young man of this place started on last Saturday to see his girl, and when last heard of he was near

PUNCH AND JUDY.

Cropper's, Shelby county. Any information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received.

A gentleman of this place has attended Franklin County Court to sell his horse and mule, and his only excuse for not selling is that a blacksmith of Belle Point furnishes such good accommodations he fails to get his horse on the market. We trust the stock sales next County Court day will be moved over in Belle Point for his special benefit.
